“Come Worship with Us!”

Created? Evolved? Who Cares? Right?

Part 4

We have been looking at worldviews and how they affect the way that we see and interpret the information around us. We are focusing on three areas – God, Nature, and Ourselves. We noted what those with a secular worldview believed concerning these three areas. We also noted that those with a Biblical worldview see God as all powerful, all knowing, and all good/loving. Also, we noted that those with a Biblical worldview see nature as designed, for our use, and we must be good stewards of it. Now, let's notice how those with a Biblical worldview see themselves.

First, we see ourselves as the created and God as the Creator. When we see ourselves in this way then that means God is in charge and we are to follow Him. Paul referred to our offering our bodies as a living sacrifice to God as “reasonable service” (Romans 12:2) because we are His creation.

Second, we see ourselves as unique. “Then God said, ‘Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth.’ So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them” (Genesis 1:26-27). These statements are not made of any of God's creation other than man. We are unique among God's creation.

Finally, we are loved. God created us, sustains us, and sent His Son for us. “For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life” (John 3:16). Jesus loves us so much He gave His life. “By this we know love, because He laid down His life for us. And we also ought to lay down our lives for the brethren” (1 John 3:16). God and Jesus love us more than we can imagine.

The way one with a Biblical worldview sees God, nature, and themselves is way different from the way the world views those same things. Let's strive to serve God faithfully!

~Justin
