“Come Worship with Us!”

Created? Evolved? Who Cares? Right?

Part 2

Last week we began a study of worldviews and how they affect the way that we see and interpret the information around us. We wanted to focus on three areas – God, Nature, and Ourselves. We noted what those with a secular worldview believed concerning these three areas. Now let's key in on how those with a Biblical worldview see these areas beginning with their view on God. There are three things they believe concerning God.

First, they view God as omnipotent (all powerful). “Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said: “Who is this who darkens counsel By words without knowledge? Now prepare yourself like a man; I will question you, and you shall answer Me. “Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth? Tell Me, if you have understanding. Who determined its measurements? Surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it? To what were its foundations fastened? Or who laid its cornerstone, When the morning stars sang together, And all the sons of God shouted for joy?” (Job 38:1-7).

Second, they view God as omniscient (all knowing). “O Lord, You have searched me and known me. You know my sitting down and my rising up; You understand my thought afar off. You comprehend my path and my lying down, And are acquainted with all my ways. For there is not a word on my tongue, But behold, O Lord, You know it altogether. You have hedged me behind and before, And laid Your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; It is high, I cannot attain it” (Psalms 139:1-6).

Finally, they view God as omnibenevolent (all good/loving). “For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life” (John 3:16).

Indeed, God is all powerful, all knowing, all good/loving, and those who hold a Biblical worldview believe it is so.
